

Estella Kilian

Whiting

Estella Kilian Whiting, 93, died January 15, 1986, at her home in Salt Lake City, Utah. Born December 12, 1894 in Salem, Utah to John F. and Mary L. Birmingham. Kilian, she married Floyd S. Whiting April 7, 1918. As-tella attended the University of Utah and was active in Women's clubs, having been a member of the Boy View Club in Kayville where they resided from 1925 to 1928. In 1928 she was named Treasurer of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs. Her hus-band passed away July 17, 1984. Their son, Kenneth was a pilot in WWII, and was lost in a raid over Austria.

Survived by her daughter, Helen W. Kirby, La Jolla, Calif.; granddaughter, Margaret Louise Kirby, San Francisco; new-nephew, Glen Kilian, Salt Lake City; nephews, Murray Peterson, Hazel Peterson; and Beatrice Lords, all Provo.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m., Tuesday, January 19th, at Eastman's Evans & Early Mortu-uary, 574 East 100 South, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Family interment at Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park. T 1/1/86 N3 1/18

